

Summer loafers

Olmecs is part of a new breed of Bridge Road eatery, but what most people probably don't know is that there's a handy little bakery within. Walk past the dining area to find fresh sourdough loaves, cakes, pastries and gourmet pantry provisions. Bakers tend to be early risers (no bun intended!), but here the bread is available until the cafe's closing time: between 9–10pm Sunday to Thursday, later on weekends.
